

BEATLEMAGIC

the ultimate  beatles experience...

Band Bio

Imagine being able to experience a day in the life of The Beatles – the greatest, most legendary rock and roll band of all time. The Beatles may be gone, but through the finely honed talents of Beatles tribute act, Beatlemagic, you can get back and twist and shout your way through a musical and pop cultural revolution that begins in the Ed Sullivan Theater, salutes Sgt. Pepper and travels Abbey Road, all in an aurally flawless and emotionally captivating live performance. Something in the way that Beatlemagic recreate the sounds and visuals of The Beatles legacy makes it all come together. Beatlemagic are your ticket to ride as you revisit the timeless Beatles' music we loved yesterday and today.

Formed in western New York in 1999, Beatlemagic have, through sheer hard work and dedication, become one of the most sought-after Beatles tribute bands on the east coast. Boasting strong vocals, meticulous musicianship and a commitment to the accurate reproduction of the Beatles music, costumes and personas, Beatlemagic is the band no Beatles fan will be able to resist.

As an authentic reproduction of the brilliant songs of The Beatles, covering many of their world-renowned hits, experiencing a Beatlemagic show is like turning the clock back forty years. Playing authentic instruments – including Rickenbacker and Gretsch guitars, Hofner "violin" bass, VoxAC 30 guitar amp and Ludwig drums – the show is visually enhanced by era-appropriate costumes and hairstyles. Beatlemagic has fully mastered the unique physical mannerisms and on stage humor that defined Paul, George, John and Ringo with astounding accuracy to the point where it becomes impossible to distinguish their multi-dimensional, emotionally resonant performance from the original Beatles live experience.

THE NEAR UNIVERSAL APPEAL OF THE BEATLES' MUSIC MAKES BEATLEMAGIC THE PERFECT ENTERTAINMENT
CHOICE FOR ANY EVENT

Beatlemagic painstakingly recreates the aura and sound of the Fab Four through numerous phases of The Beatles' phenomenal career. The show begins with the group's historical appearance on the Ed Sullivan show, then passes through A Hard Days Night and continues with the mania of The Beatles' first Shea Stadium performance. The audiences is next treated to the memorable songs from Sgt. Pepper and Magical Mystery Tour, before the shows winds down Abbey Road and culminates with the band's famous rooftop performance at Apple Records' London office, which is so closely identified with the Beatles final, classic album, Let It Be. Finely detailed costume changes range from the band's collarless grey jackets circa 1963 to Sgt. Pepper's full psychedelic regalia and the pivotal image transition of Magical Mystery Tour. Beatlemagic's musical repertoire is second to none, featuring all the singles and favorite songs from every major Beatles' album release. With more tunes added weekly, the show is truly getting better all the time.

Beatlemagic has excited crowds and entertained thousands of fans across the US and Canada, continually growing in popularity. The band has even performed with original Beatles' drummer, Pete Best! Beatlemagic regularly plays parties/events for a wide variety of corporate clients such as Merrill Lynch, Ingram Micro, IBM, and Cisco among others. The near universal appeal of The Beatles' music makes Beatlemagic the perfect entertainment choice for any event. Likewise, the show's all-ages appeal creates an ideal family outing where parents and kids can bond, sharing the joy and magic of The Beatles' music together. At a Beatlemagic performance, a splendid time is guaranteed for all!
